2012 SALMON DERBY RULES & REGULATIONS

FEES & ELIGIBILITY

The 2012 Salmon Derby begins at 6 A.M. May 12th, 2012, and ends at 9 P.M. June 10th 2012. Contestants fishing before 6 A.M. on opening day will be disqualified for the entire day---

Individual tickets will be $30 which allows one person to fish. Contestants must present their Salmon Derby Ticket, current State of Alaska Fishing License & King Salmon Stamp at the weigh-in station - with no exceptions.

Tickets are not transferable. Participants will comply with all ADF&G regulations. Non-entrants, regardless of age may NOT FISH in the same boats with entrants but may go along for the enjoyment of the outing.

WEIGHING OF FISH

Salmon must be weighed in the "round" by the contestant at designated weigh stations. Any salmon may be opened at the decision of the committee. Entering any fish caught using methods of gear contrary to the stated rules risks disqualification.

*** FISHING AREA ( REVISED! REVISED! REVISED! 2012 SEE PAGE 20 )

Boundaries for the 2012 Wrangell Salmon Derby will enclose the area bounded by the following: Southeastern Watkins Point to Mensfee Point, Southwestern Steamer Point to Point Nesbitt, Northwestern Point Alexander to Low Point, Northeastern Blaquiere Point to Gerard Point.

TACKLE & BOATS

Rods must be in accordance with sporting ethics and customs, any rods giving the contestants an un-sporting advantage will be disqualified. Mono-filament, dacron, nylon, or wire line and leader shall not exceed a breaking point test of 50 pounds. Any type of sporting lure or bait may be used.

NOTE: All Derby Participants are allowed ONE(1) ROD ONLY WHILE DERBY FISHING regardless of Fish & Game Regulations that allow more than 1 rod per person. Any person using more than 1 rod will not be eligible to enter fish for that day. No contestant may participate from any boat which has commercial fishing gear in use. However down-riggers may be used with a 10 lb. max. weight.

Salmon, when gaffed, shall be gaffed in the head. Firearms shall not be used in the landing of salmon. A landing net may be used. No underwater cameras will be permitted. The contestant must hook and play his own salmon in a sportsmanlike manner, unaided by another person, except for receiving assistance in gaffing or netting. Any contestant interfering with another contestant by running over or crossing the line while the latter is catching a fish is subject to disqualification.

DECISIONS & RULES OF ENTRY

In the event of a tie as to weight, the first salmon weighed in will be given the priority, and the second entry will be considered in line for the next prize. The decisions by the judges and Derby Committee in all cases will be final, and only salmon caught in accordance with the above rules will be accepted and entered in the Wrangell Salmon Derby. The Derby Committee ASSUMES NO LIABILITY for changes in schedule or prizes due to any circumstances beyond its control. Derby participants are encouraged to report daily catch totals to ADF&G census personal, data collected provides important information used to determine future allocation of sport caught king salmon in our district.

*** NEW !!! PARTICIPANT MISCONDUCT & REPORTING

Witnesses to any violation of Derby Rules must WRITE AND SIGN a detailed complaint within 24 hours of alleged misconduct and submit to the Derby Committee for final decision.

PRIZES

All contestants are limited to one prize for salmon caught, regardless of the number of salmon entered, except for bonus prizes as determined by the Derby Committee. Contestants must be present to claim derby prizes or have someone present to accept prize on their behalf - we can no longer hold/ship prizes.

SPORTSMANSHIP
AWARD 2012

A very special thanks goes to Chris G. and his family for showing us what true sportsmanship is about. Because he did not hold the Chamber liable for a date error printed on the 2011 Derby Ticket, we didn't start 2012 in the red!

"It's about the derby, and the great times we have during derby time, that's why I fish it every year!" Chris said with a grin, "Let's keep it going!"

So, in honor of Chris and his sportsmanship, the Derby Committee will be awarding:

$750.00

To the largest king caught & entered the

A TOUCH OF WRANGELLITIS

Art Clark, talented and witty local resident, wrote the column "Wrangellitis" for the Sentinel in the early 1970's. His articles consisted of humorous accounts of daily life in Wrangell.

His work can be found in his book: "A Touch of Wrangellitis"

Wrangellitis is a special form of hospitality. It's welcoming a newcomer or taking someone who doesn't own a boat hunting or fishing. Most of all, Wrangellitis is a love for the Great Land and a sense of humor that can not be dampened by the rain.

Almost everything that resembles Wrangellitis in the other 49 states, and in the larger cities of Alaska, has been wiped out by progress, indifference and the population explosion.

Okay, so you're tired of all this rain and you're leaving this crummy little town forever. You'll return, my friend. After being exposed to Wrangellitis, you're unfit to live anywhere else!

Fish Up To The Last Minute!

We've all seen him out there year after year the Maranatha on the drag - 2011 Derby was the definite year of the "Guggenbickler!" Three Guggenbicklers were listed on the TOP 10 Weekly Ladder at one time! Chris was on the ladder in 3rd place with only 5 days left, however he was determined to go out and catch the winner:

Chris and Jodie were fishing near Black Can (story for another time), on the back channel when Jodie hooked a 39.2 pound ladder-placing king! They debated on heading in, however the lucky streak outweighed and they decided to stay for 30 minutes more, and it paid off! "There's nothing more exciting than watching your pole pop out of the downrigger," Chris said. "I knew it was close but you don't want to get your hopes up until you see what it weighs."

CHRIS 44.7 LBS.
$6000.00 First place + $500.00 Weekly

Jodie 39.2

Two hours out, the Guggenbicklers made it back to Wrangell, some say they saw the flash of the Maranatha flying by, unusually fast even for Chris, and weighed in at 8:05pm. Just shy of the closing of the 2011 Salmon Derby. Jodie's king finished in fifth place and Chris's 44.7 pounder won the 2011 Salmon Derby with 55 minutes to spare!
